

Kathleen Teehan

As the Vice President of Business Development and Client Services at ClearRock, Kathleen is a partner to senior leaders as they make important decisions that impact their talent and organizational success. She is a touchstone for her clients and brings keen insights to help them create successful outcomes for onboarding employees, as well as to advancing leaders and assisting those moving on from the organization.

Before joining ClearRock, Kathleen spent 12 years at The Predictive Index as a consultant and sales executive. She is an expert in human capital analytics, helping business leaders make decisions about talent at all stages of the employee life cycle. A dynamic and engaging speaker and facilitator, Kathleen has delivered workshops on talent acquisition, leadership development, team building and sales skill development.

Kathleen has spent the past 25 years in business development helping organizations meet their objectives by thoroughly understanding the challenges they face and delivering solutions with high impact. She has developed a reputation as a person deeply committed to exceeding the expectations of her clients. Her sales approach and relationship management skills have perpetuated a history of exceptional client retention and lifelong friendships.

Kathleen graduated with a business degree from Niagara University. She is passionate about cooking and gardening and loves spending time with her daughter Anya and husband Rob.
