

Mike Fitzgerald

Mike Fitzgerald is a career coach and advisor with more than 20 years of experience working with senior level business leaders in virtually all industry sectors. He is passionate about helping individuals identify their hopes, values and goals and ensuring strong alignment of these with their careers.

Mike draws upon his deep experience connecting talent with opportunity through his work in executive search. He has also led efforts to further organizational diversity and inclusion and to develop leadership capabilities in young professionals. Mike is the first recipient of the Bob Gatti Mentor of the Year Award, given by the Northeast Human Resources Association (NEHRA).

In addition to his work with ClearRock, Mike is the founder of Fitzgerald Career Advisory Services. He previously served as a Senior Vice President at Gatti & Associates, where he developed expertise in partnering with clients and candidates nationwide, with a focus in the areas of technology, life sciences, professional services and higher education. Mike also served as Director of Diversity at Boston College High School. He is a former President of the Human Resources Council (HRC) and currently serves on the Board of Advisors for the Jesuit-affiliated Contemplative Leaders in Action program, which is dedicated to developing the leadership capabilities of young professionals who seek to align their values and sense of mission with their careers and personal lives.

Mike is a native of Buffalo, NY and earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Saint John Fisher College. He also attended The School of Irish Studies in Dublin, Ireland and earned Master of Arts degrees from both Boston College and Lesley College in Pastoral Ministry and Counseling. As a person who embraces challenges that enhance health and fitness, Mike has successfully completed 14 marathons, (including 12 Boston Marathons).
