

Marie Bankuti

Career Consultant

Marie Bankuti is a Career Consultant who is committed to personal and professional growth, helping others reach their full potential and contribution. She builds connections with ease, creating a space for self-reflection and setting the stage for forward movement. As a daughter of an immigrant, Marie has taken particular interest in understanding multicultural differences, helping teams bridge those differences, and assisting foreign-born professionals navigate their careers to succeed in U.S. companies.

With over 25 years of experience in coaching, training and corporate work, Marie has worked in a variety of industries, including banking, manufacturing, non-profit, state government, retail and service, gaining perspectives from diverse corporate cultures and environments.

In addition to her work with ClearRock, Marie is the founder and President of Tether Free Vision Inc. As a coach/trainer/speaker, she works with individuals and organizations around cultural intelligence, unconscious bias, leadership and team dynamics. She supports leaders at all levels to develop their individual leadership styles, while creating engaged and productive working relationships in culturally diverse environments. Marie's previous work as Project Manager, along with her extensive business analysis and technical background, informs her collaborative and team-focused approach.

She holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Emmanuel College in Boston and is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCC) and Project Management Professional (PMP). She is certified to facilitate the Cultural Intelligence 360, Leadership Circle Profile 360 and Team Diagnostic assessments, and is a member of the International Coach Federation and Project Management Institute.

Marie enjoys hiking, hot air balloons, and finding various ways of expanding her personal and professional comfort zones!
